DETAILED ACTION

Specification

1. The title of the invention is not descriptive. A new title is required that is clearly indicative of the invention to which the claims are directed.

2. The disclosure including abstract, specification and claims includes terminology which is very different from that which is generally accepted in the art. For example:

"mating connector of an opposite side" should be changed to -- mating connector --.

"connector of an opposite side" should be changed to -- mating connector --.

Claim Objections

3. Claims 1-4 are objected to because of the following informalities:

Every occurrence of "mating connector of an opposite side" should be changed to -- mating connector --.

Every occurrence of "connector of an opposite side" should be changed to -- mating connector --.

Appropriate correction is required.

Allowable Subject Matter

- 4. Claims 1-4 are allowable.
- 5. The following is a statement of reasons for the indication of allowable subject matter:

Prior art does not show an electrical connector having a casing made of two members receiving a printed circuit board inside the casing with a connecting part for coupling to a mating connector and a connecting member with a plurality of right-angled bar-shaped terminals fixed inside the casing by a fixing member for receiving terminals of a mating connector wherein the body of the connecting member slides from the inside of the casing and the fixing member is press-fitted in the body of the connecting member and the casing.

Conclusion

6. This application is in condition for allowance except for the following formal matters:

Objection to disclosure including claims, specification and title.

Prosecution on the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

A shortened statutory period for reply to this action is set to expire TWO MONTHS from the mailing date of this letter.
